VETERANS AND ELIGIBLE SPOUSES PRIORITY OF SERVICE RIGHTS

Under the Jobs for Veterans Act and the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA), as a veteran or eligible spouse of a veteran, you have rights to priority of service. These rights include:

- The right at the first point of application for WIOA or other workforce services, to be identified as a veteran or eligible spouse and having the rights to priority of service;
- The obligation of the service provider to inform you of all program services available to you including the full array of employment, training and placement services provided; and
- The right to be informed about any applicable eligibility requirements for workforce programs and/or services.

You must meet all the eligibility requirements for a program to be entitled to rights to priority of service within that program's group of participants.

Do any of the following options describe you?
