JUMPSTART YOUR CAREER IN THE CONSTRUCTION INDUSTRY Healthy Homes Construction Careers (HHCC)

Do you have Construction Training or Construction Work Experience?

You may be able to become Lead Abatement Certified in less than two weeks!

No Construction Training or Work Experience? No Problem!

If you have not had any construction training or construction work experience, you can enroll in the Absolute Advantage 12-week pre-apprenticeship course to become Lead Abatement Certified.

Ø There is no cost for either the short-term or 12-week training. And, while you are in training, you'll be paid a $15/hr. stipend!

Ø Upon completion, you will be connected to local contractors for employment opportunities. Average wages start at $15/hr.

Learn valuable skills for a family-supporting job in the growing construction industry. And, help your community by removing this hazard from homes to prevent permanent harm to small children at risk of ingesting lead-based paint.
